THURSDAY, JUNE 10, 1897.

Schneider, the "divine healer," who is now imposing upon the credulous people of Clayton, a suburb of St. Louis, was opitely denounced a few days ago by a woman member of the Salvation Army, who confronted him before a crowd and told him he was "a fraud, a fakir, a pretender and a blasphemous," and made it so hot for Schneider that he mounted his bicycle and escaped.

The prospector who discovers traces and locates lodes rarely engages in extensive mining enterprises. He seldom sinks a shaft to a greater depth than 50 feet. The height of his ambition is reached when he becomes the locator of a lode which has developed into a rich mine, although the expense and labor of the development has been done by others. Many so-called miners skim the surface in search of surface pockets and are content to gather a few hundred dollars, provided it can be done with little labor, and in this hope they become leasers of shallow workings and are a detriment to any property upon which they work.—Denver Record.

Investors will not go to the necessary heavy expense of having a mine examined without some proof that there is a strong probability that it is valuable. For this reason they refuse to examine many good properties that are not properly presented. Mine owners should learn that mines may be sold by samples of the ore bodies, to a certain extent, just as are wheat and other articles of commerce. Yet the average mine owner has a bad habit of taking samples that are of no value, and not only deceives himself, but others. He must learn that mines are not purchased nowadays without thorough examination and that he must present only such facts as may be substantiated.—Mining & Scientific Press.

Representative Cochran, of Missouri, has introduced a subject of much importance into the house. He has brought forward a resolution submitting, in accordance with the terms of the constitution, the question of an income tax, for approval in the various states, his object being to have the states approve the income tax idea and embody it in the constitution. The resolution gives the form which the amendment to the constitution will bear, and carefully states that such a tax as is proposed shall be gathered from incomes in any manner prescribed by congress. Such social conditions now prevail in this country that it is not unlikely this suggestion of Mr. Cochran will come to something.—Providence (R. I.) Journal.

The sermon by Rev. Dr. Rainford (at the Trinity bicentenary, New York) was a strong defense of certain peculiarities of that very rich religious corporation. An endowed church like Trinity, said he, was a great blessing because its freedom from the paralyzing influence of two or three rich pew-holders afforded the pastor that liberty of speech which is necessary in dealing with "the awful needs of New York today." "Let me tell you," were his words, "it is not easy for a man to speak freely and fearlessly from the pulpit when he knows that two or three rich men in his congregation hold the whole parish by the throat." It can be said that Trinity's clergymen have never been noted for half the outspokenness of language and freedom of thought which have characterized Dr. Rainford. And Dr. Rainford's church is scarcely endowed at all. Not so much depends on the pulpit as on the man in it.—Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

GRAHAM COUNTY BULLETIN!

On or about July 4 the publishers of the Graham County Bulletin will issue a 24-page edition on fine paper, profusely and handsomely illustrated with scenes of the various industries and enterprises in Graham county and the Globe mining district. It will contain full information concerning the various resources of Graham county—agricultural, mineral and livestock.

The advantages and opportunities here offered for well directed capital, muscle and brain will be told without exaggeration, and the edition will be made so complete that when placed in the hands of a home seeker or seeker after knowledge of Arizona, he can ask for nothing more. An effort will be made to place a copy of the edition in the hands of every citizen of Graham county and Globe, who will be asked to mail it to some friend in the states. A limited amount of space will be at the disposal of advertisers and any person who may desire to dispose of a farm, a mine or cattle ranch will find this a most desirable means of making such fact known to the outside world. Full information and prices for advertising space will be had on application to the Bulletin Office, Solomonville, A. T. Those desiring extra copies should send in their orders now. The price per copy will be 10 cents.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at H. C. Hitchcock's drug store.

Those who have given much thought to the future trade relations of the western hemisphere have realized, says the Globe-Democrat, that we are seeing the dawn of a great commercial era. Up to the present the people of the United States and of the Spanish-speaking republics have known comparatively little of one another. That indifference is breaking down and the future certainly has in store the development of a great commerce between these countries. The Mexican government seems to appreciate this fact more than does the United States, and as a means of preparing its people to treat to the greatest advantage with us, English is made a compulsory study in the public schools of Mexico.

Some time ago I was taken sick with a cramp in the stomach, followed by diarrhoea. I took a couple of doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was immediately relieved. I consider it the best medicine in the market for all such complaints. I have sold the remedy to others and every one who uses it speaks highly of it. J. W. STRICKLER, Valley Center, Cal. For sale by H. C. Hitchcock, druggist.

MATE IS QUITE SCARCE.

It is a South American Tea and Few Dealers Know of It.
"Mate" repeated a tea dealer awhile ago. "Never heard of it. What is it?"

"A tea grown in South America, and it is drunk more than Chinese tea by those people," was the answer of the man who had asked for the article.
This conversation was repeated in a dozen offices, till at last, concluding that the tea trade knew nothing of it, the man betook himself to the Uruguay consulate. A man was found there who for years had resided in the Parana region, and who, when told of the quest, laughed and, pulling a little bag from under a table, said: "I am not surprised. I guess this bag represents the sum total of mate in this part of the city. There is no trade in it, for only a few people who have lived in South America and have become attached to the tea buy small quantities for their own use."

He opened the bag. It contained perhaps 20 pounds of leaves, ground coarse, of a dead-green color, having no perceptible smell nor a slightly bitter taste. "I got this," he went on, "partly for myself and partly to send to the Atlanta exposition. And, you know, we cannot infuse the tea as we do Chinese; it must be drunk boiling hot—not allowed to stand—else it becomes insipid. So we have these cups and tubes," and he took from his desk a wood shell cup like a gourd, holding a scant half-pint, and a tube about a foot long. Mate costs about two cents a pound down in Paraguay.—N. Y. Press.

NEW YORK WORLD,

Thrice-a-Week Edition.

18 Pages a Week. 156 Papers a Year

It stands first among "weekly" papers in size, frequency of publication and freshness, variety and reliability of contents. It is practically a daily at the low price of a weekly; and its vast list of subscribers, extending to every state and territory of the Union and foreign countries, will vouch for the accuracy and fairness of its news columns.

It is splendidly illustrated and among its special features are a fine humor page, exhaustive market reports, all the latest fashions for women and a long series of stories by the greatest living American and English authors.

Conrad Doyle, Jerome K. Jerome, Stanley Weyman, Mary E. Wilkins, Anthony Hope, Bret Harte, Brander Matthews, etc.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and
